To Whom it may concern:

I have personally known Andress Rodriguez for over 6 years as his Trainer. Andress is a strong minded, confident, and humble student athlete. He has always been focused and never loses sight of his goals, he is a hard-working student athlete who has shown for the past 6 years how well he is capable of juggling school, school practices, multiple different showcase team practices, games from all squads and above all elite level training 3+ days a week to improve and maintain his abilities on the mound and at the plate. Not only is he an exceptional pitcher but he is also an acrobat on the field Andress is a true athlete all around the field and in the gym, his work ethic is un paralleled. When I see Dre I see pure commitment, drive, leader, and a solid ball player. Andress will be an asset to any school and ball club who invites him to the next level of competitive play.

Sincerely,

Daniel Martinez
